Why Chinamerica Radio?

No major American media group has decided to program any pop-Chinese music for the fastest growing immigrant group, Asians. There are already 15 million persons identifying culturally as Chinese in the United States, living in every state, not just big cities. Potentially, Chinamerica Radio can reach all of them, online, wherever they are. We are unique. We are free. No registration. Chinamerica Radio presents our announcements, commercials, and interviews in English. Only the Music is Chinese. Our Chinamerica Radio audience consists of young-adult working professionals from across the United States and around the world. Although our listeners have a strong relationship with their heritage, it is not necessary to have Chinese as a first language to enjoy our station. Because they are the fastest growing demographic in the US, our Chinamerica Radio potential listener base multiplies every month.
